

Would you show me that I can trust you?

I need to be and feel believed. I need to know that you will not respond with disbelief. I need to know that you will not respond with disbelief. I need you to try to understand. It is hard, but just to try is enough. I do be confident that you will not minimise my experience. I do be certain you will not offer excuses for the person who hurt me. Need you to be alive to the power imbalance in my experience. I need to be sure you will not make me feel responsible for what happened. I need you not to make me feel blamed or shamed, intentionally or unintentionally. I am already likely to be holding shame that is not mine to hold. I need you to protect my dignity, and I need to trust that you will.

I need you to respect my confidentiality.

I need to be able to trust you.

ed you to understand how hard it is for me to trust anyone, even you.

The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep – The sheep follow him because they know his voice
