

Would you value who I am right now?

I need to be met where I am.

I need you to accept me for who I am.

I need to feel whole, not broken, damaged or contaminated.

I need to be and feel valued.

I need you not to make me feel judged. I already feel shame which is not mine to hold.

I need you not to turn away from me because of the way I have coped with my trauma.

I need you not to make me feel rejected or alienated, either consciously or unconsciously.

I need to be treated as an equal of worth in all aspects, including the life of the church and society.
I need to be able to retain my own identity at all times.
I need you to see God's image in me.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND DIOCESE OF NEWCASTLE ... Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. Matthew 10:26-31 abridged
